BEXLEY HIGH SCHOOL

Bexley, Ohio

FOREWORD

"To strive, to seek, to find, and not to yield." The staff presents the 1944 BEXLEO in the hope that this, our motto, may serve as an inspiration to all who go forth from these halls to make a better world for all peoples.

SUPERINTENDENT

NOVICE G. FAWCETT, B. A., M. A.

Superintendent of Bexley school system, was graduated from Kenyon College, Ashland College, and Ohio State University and is now working on his Ph. D. He is proudest of heading a city school system in Ohio before he was 30 years old. Mr. Fawcett's pet peeve is his never being at home; his favorite pastimes, golf, reading, and table tennis. He assists the research committee on postwar education and is a member of the sub-committee of the board of visitors of Ohio State University for the College of Education and of the Principals' Discussion group of Central Ohio. He is active in the Columbus Town Meeting of the Air.

DEDICATION

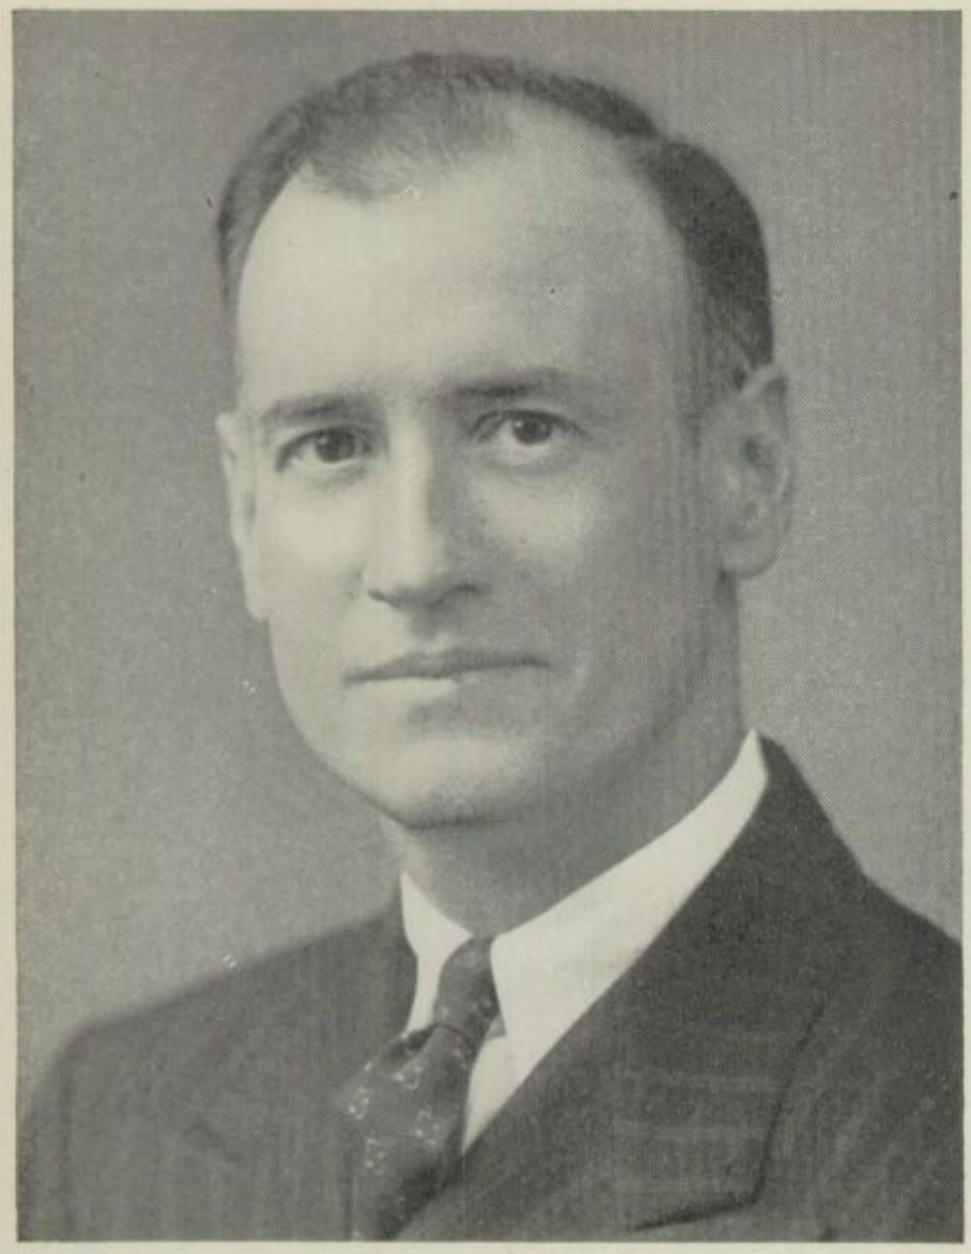
In sincere appreciation of a vigorous and progressive administration during his first year as superintendent of the Bexley schools, and with firm assurance that he will continue to lead forward as he has begun, we, the staff, dedicate the 1944 BEXLEO to Novice G. Fawcett.

Day by day experiences of students, teachers, and citizens of the community testify to the depth of Mr. Fawcett's belief in "the democratic way of life based upon the assumption of respect for human personality."

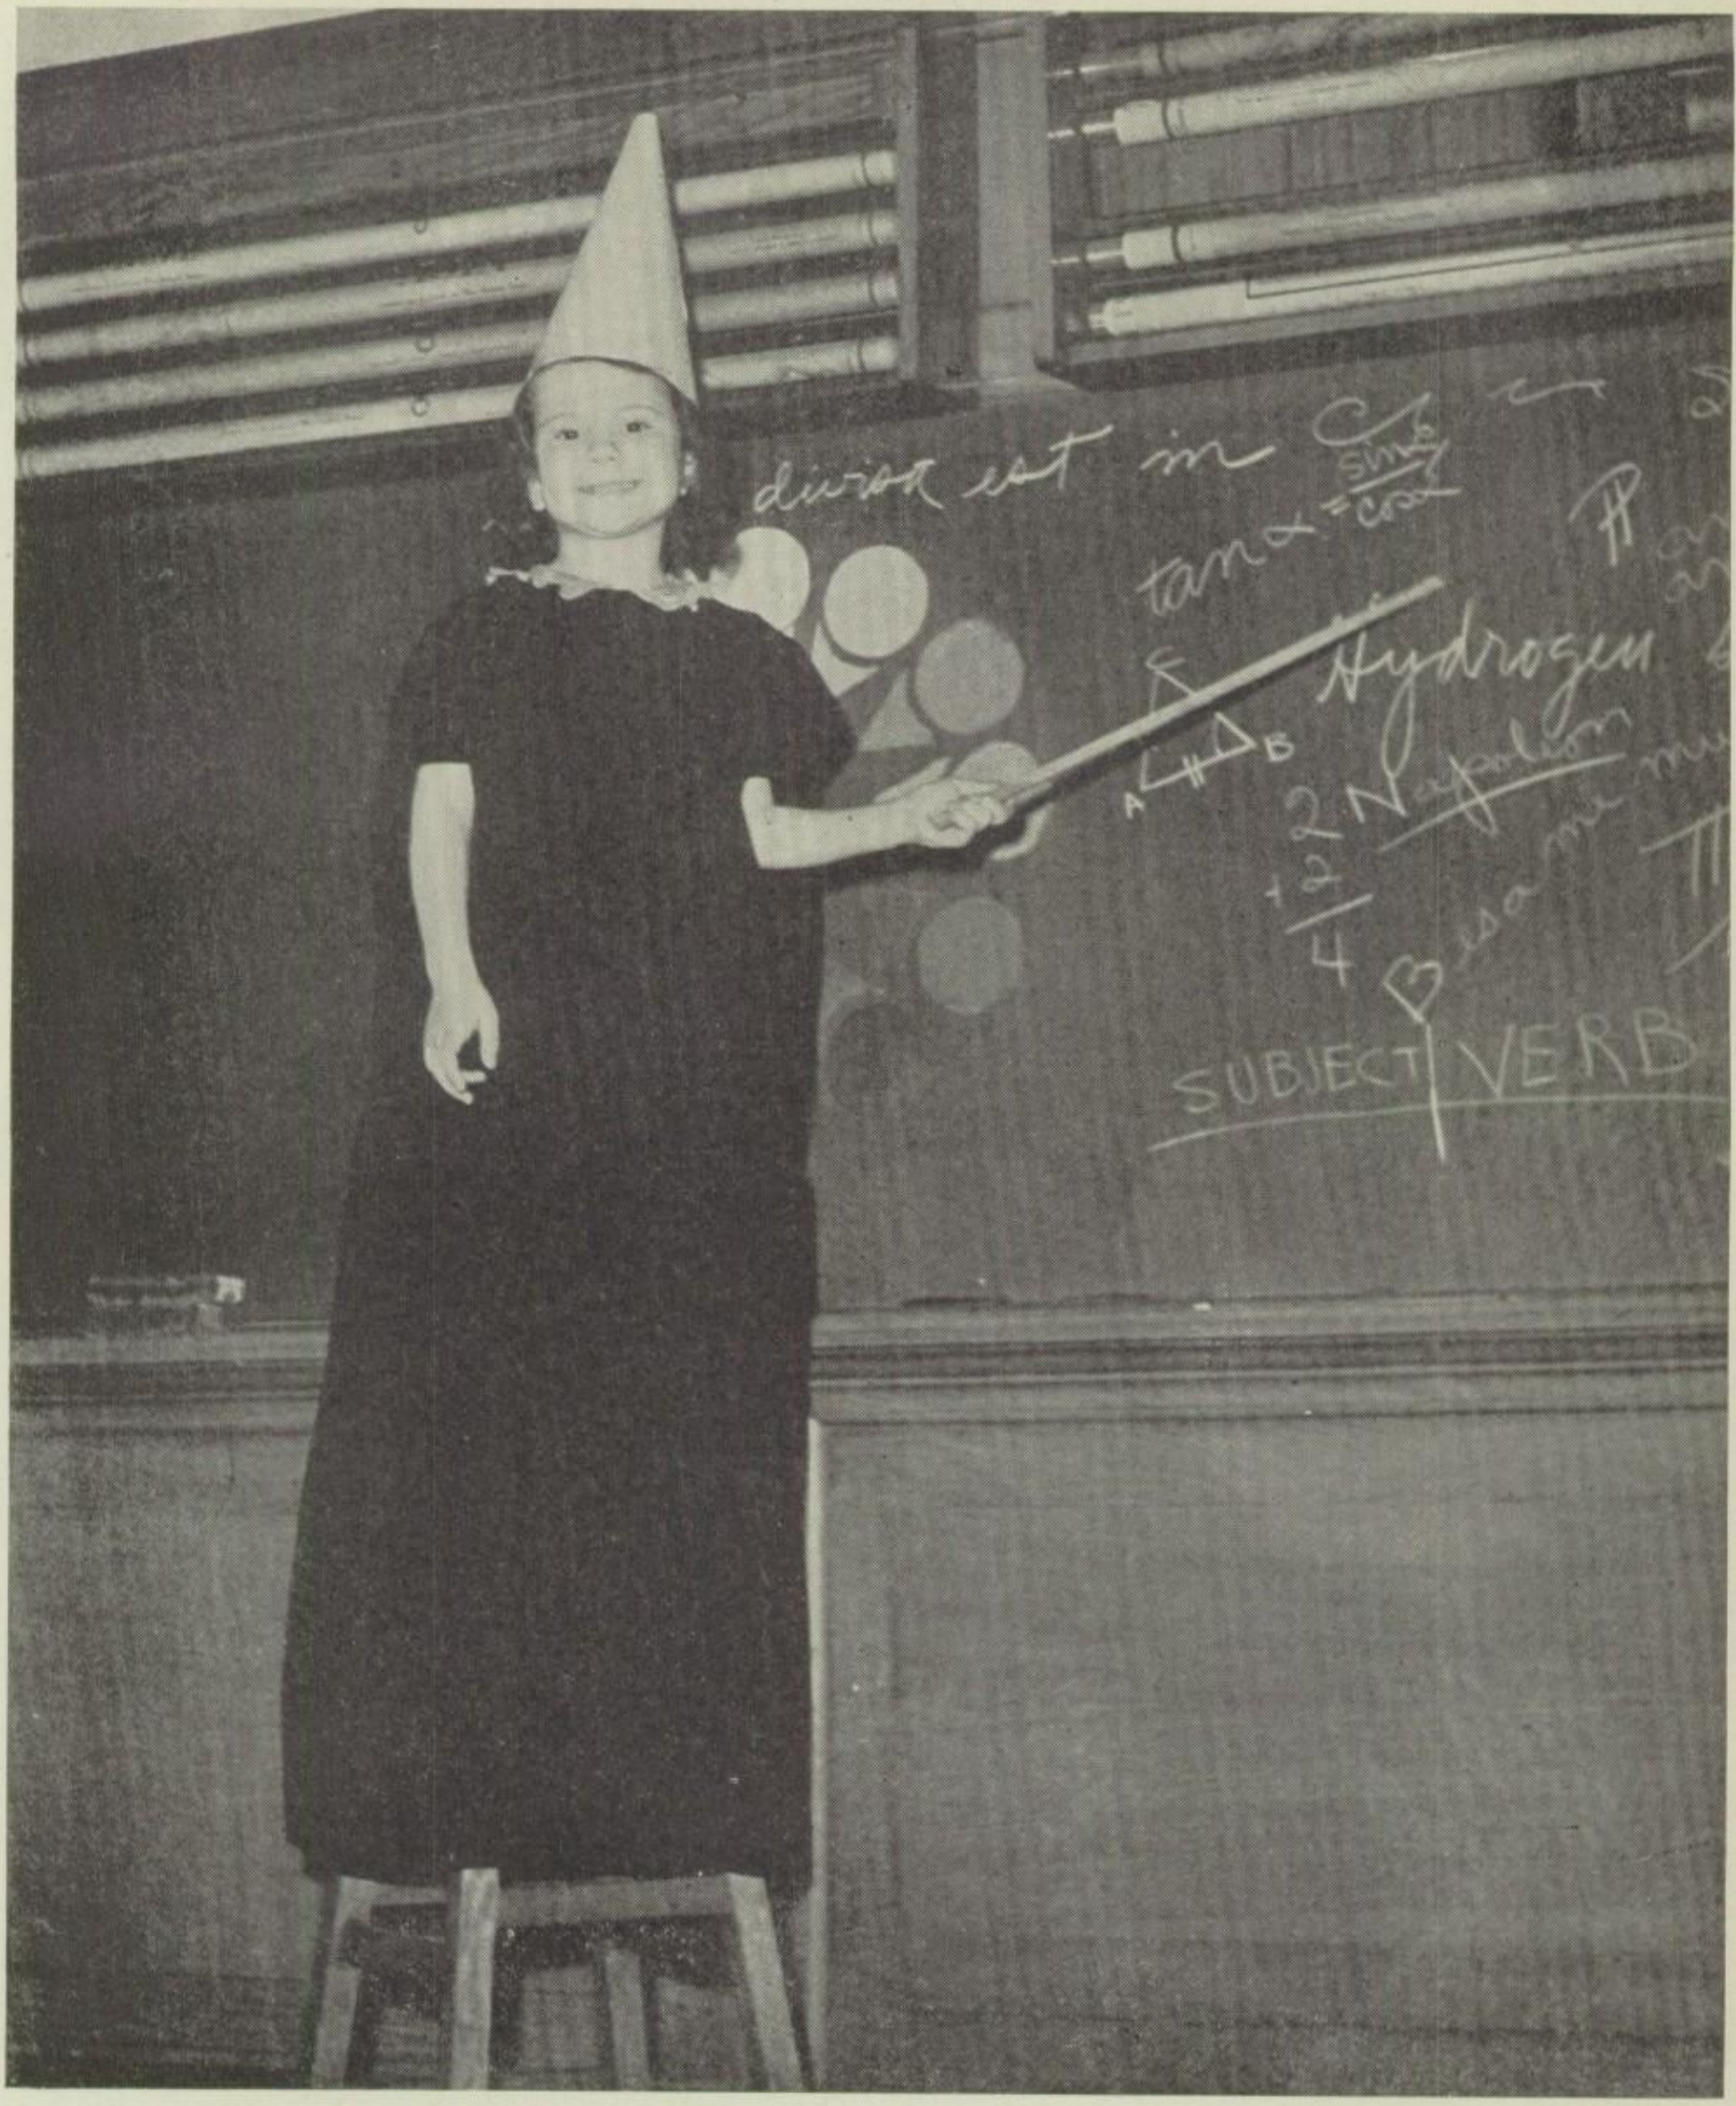
Pervading his efficiency and vision as an administrator is a sincerity and warmth of feeling that makes him our friend.



PRINCIPAL

RUSSELL E. KESSLER, A. B., M. A., L. L. B.

Principal of Bexley High School, graduated from Ohio Wesleyan, Ohio State, and Franklin universities. His pet peeve is students who throw paper in the corridors, and he likes to spend his spare time fishing and hunting. He writes all of the checks for the activity fund. Mr. Kessler often says, "The _____ period will be omitted this morning."



Faculty

MISS MARTHA JANE ANDERTON, B.SC., M.A.

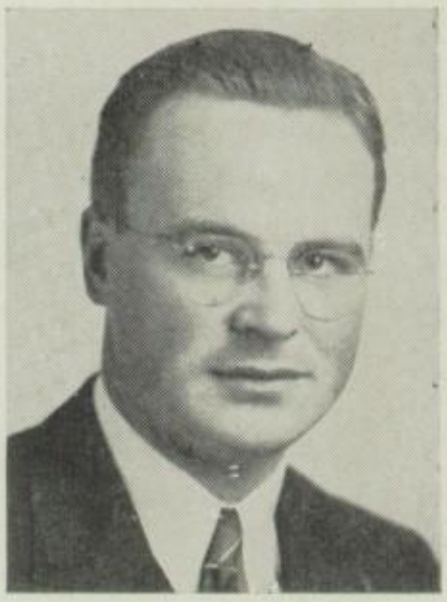
Teaches physical education. She is a graduate of Ohio State University, and acts as adviser to the Girls' Athletic Club, the cheerleaders, and the girls' tennis team. Among her outside interests are photography, studying German, and victory gardening. She loves to bowl, go camping or canoeing, and eat onions. She is proudest of the punt she made in the women teachers-Hi-Y basketball game.

MISS MARY SQUIER BETHEL, B.A., M.A.

A graduate of Office Training School and Ohio State University, teaches shorthand and typing and is supervisor of student typing and mimeographing for teachers. Her favorite pastimes are reading, going to movies, and listening to both swing and classical music. She is proudest of the many Bexley pupils who are "making good" on the job; her pet peeves are homeroom periods and pupils who comb their hair during classes. She often says, "Get ready—get ready, write!"

MRS. AMY C. BRIGHTMAN, B.A.

Latin teacher, Latin Club adviser, and the director of stage properties and settings was graduated from Ohio State University and William and Mary. Her outside activities include reading and being president of the Board of Trustees for the Bexley Library. She dislikes seeing pupils chew gum in class and is proudest of her old Bible collection which contains the Vinegar Bible and the Breeches Bible.

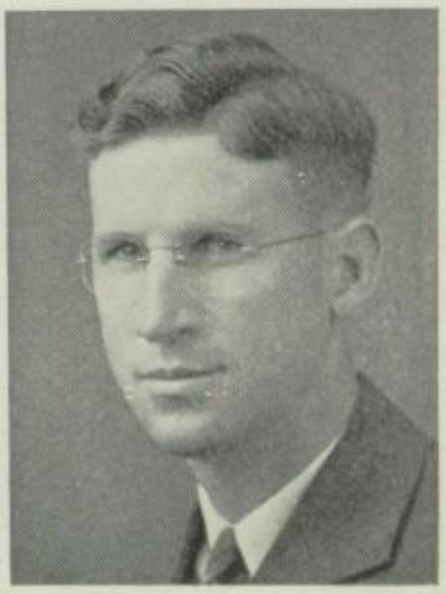


CHARLES L. CLARK, A.B., M.A.

Is faculty manager of all athletics, which thoroughly takes up his extra curricular time. He teaches geography, bookkeeping, and algebra. He likes to eat luscious steak and enjoys playing bridge. Study hall talkers annoy him. He paints houses in the summer and is interested in athletics.

MRS. ROSABELLE CLEMENTS BABCOCK, B.S., M.A.

Graduated from Pratt Institute and teaches art in the Bexley schools. She was known to Bexley students as Rosabelle Clements before her marriage in the opening of this year. Mrs. Babcock enjoys fishing and often says, "Work carefully." She is proudest of the scholarships won by the art students.



ROBERT M. DUFFEY, B.S. IN ED.

Teaches industrial arts. He's been known to kill rabbits on the run with the bow and arrow. He is now working on his master's degree at Ohio State. Refereeing and photography claim a good part of his time; his small daughter takes her share also. The lack of industry around school irritates him and he enjoys athletics of all kinds.

RUTH E. EBERHART, B.MUS.

Attended Capital University, Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, University of Cincinnati, Northwestern University. Her pet peeve is people who chew gum and she is proudest of the progress which the chorus has made this year. Her favorite pastime is walking and she often says, "For goodness sake." Miss Eberhart is a Campfire Girls guardian.

IRA F. FERBRACHE, A.B.

Attended Ohio Northern University and teaches mathematics. He dislikes to see running and pushing in the halls and he likes to hike in the woods, observing nature. Much of his outside time is spent in farming and he is proudest of a job well done. Mr. Ferbrache often says, "There's too much talking in here."

ALBERT W. FIELD, B.ARCH., M.A.

Gives the sophomores the "do's" and "don'ts" as their adviser. He is the faculty manager of the senior play, teaches world history, and can often be heard saying, "Let's quiet down." He attended Ohio State University. Mr. Field likes to garden and to make toys for his children, of whom he is very proud.

MISS RUTH C. GEIST, A.B., M.A.

Is a graduate of Western College and Ohio State University. She teaches English, journalism, and bookkeeping, and is the faculty adviser of the Torch, co-adviser of the Lion Life, and sponsor of Quill and Scroll. Her pet peeve is staff members who fail to meet the deadline. She is proudest of the Torch awards for 1943-1944 and likes to spend her free time playing golf. She often says, "Now listen, my children."

CHARLES E. HOEL, B.S., M.A.

Teaches general science, biology, and physics. He attended Ohio Northern and Ohio State. He also taught physics to the ASTP students at Ohio State this year. Mr. Hoel's pet peeve is people's leaving his class without permission. His favorite pastime is gardening and he is proudest of his two girls. His favorite saying is, "I like hundreds."

RALPH M. HOWELL, A.B., M.A.

Graduated from Ohio and Ohio State Universities. His favorite pastimes are gardening and fishing (when there wasn't gas rationing). Mr. Howell teaches French and sociology and is the faculty adviser for the Bexleo and the business staff of the Torch. He teaches night school at Franklin University, and he dislikes to have people scorn all that is not prosaic and practical. He often says, "I'll hold my breath 'til I actually see the Bexleo this year."

RALPH L. JORDAN, B.MUS.

Attended Philadelphia School of Music, Temple University, Cleveland Institute of Music, and Capital University. As supervisor of instrumental music, he is proudest of the new band uniforms. His pet peeve is gossipers and his favorite pastime is golf. He often says, "Let's talk it over."

ROSS B. KEFAUVER, B.SC., M.SC.

Is "proud of my profession." Thanks to him we have a new supply of textbooks every fall. He spends his summers repairing and cataloguing them. He teaches chemistry and general science. Wasting laboratory materials is his favorite pet peeve. Gardening and fishing are his pastimes.

MISS RETA B. McCORMICK, A.B., B.S.C. IN ED.

Was educated at Ohio State University and her favorite pastime was riding in an automobile. She instructs the students in Latin and can be heard frequently saying, "Pride goeth before a fall." At school she is the Latin Club adviser, and Junior Class sponsor. Miss McCormick is active in church organizations and sews for White Cross Hospital.

MISS TROLA L. McCURDY, B.A., M.A.

Acts as Girl Reserve adviser and occupies her after-school hours with knitting, sewing, reading, collecting china, and refinishing old furniture. Girls who scream when they aren't hurt never fail to annoy her. She graduated from Ohio Northern and Ohio State and enjoys plays, flower gardening and cooking out of doors. Miss McCurdy is proudest of her portable sewing machine.

H. EUGENE MECHLING, B.A., M.A.

Attended Capital University and Ohio State. He teaches business training and physical education in addition to his assistant coaching duties in football and basketball and coaching the baseball squad. "Gene" is proudest of his two children and his favorite pastime is refereeing football and basketball.

MISS BERNICE I. MULLINS, B.A.

Attended De Pauw University and Ohio State University, teaches English, public speaking and dramatics at Bexley, and directs the Senior Play each year. She is proudest of student actors who play their roles successfully and often says, "Live your part!" She enjoys traveling and likes plays and good movies; however, she dislikes noisy radio programs intensely.

JOHN F. SCHACHT, B.SC., M.SC.

Attended Capital University, where he now teaches physics to the air cadets. At Bexley he teaches geometry and trigonometry and his pet peeve is pupils who will not study. He is faculty adviser of the Hi-Y and is proudest of the 1944 Hi-Y basketball team. Mr. Schacht often quotes, "Some people are students; others, pupils; and the rest just occupy seats."

MISS LUCILLE M. SELBACH, B.A., B.SC. IN ED.

Teaches English and was graduated from Ohio State University. Her favorite pastime is going to the theater, and her outside activities include gardening and raising flowers. She is proudest of pupils who make good, and her pet peeve is singing radio ads. She often says, "What do you think?" Green is her favorite color.

CARLTON H. SMITH, B.A., M.SC.

Attended Ohio Wesleyan and Ohio State. He has coached Bexley teams as long as the school has been in existence, and teaches chemistry and physical education. His favorite pastime is playing golf, during which he often says, "Judas Priest." He is proudest of his football team. Among the coach's outside activities is his summer camp. Coach is one of those rare people who have no pet peeve.

MISS MARION A. THOMAS, B.SC., IN ED., B.SC. IN AGR'L., M.A.

Is Dean of Women, teaches home economics and social practice, and was graduated from Ohio State University. Her favorite pastime is making hooked rugs; her pet peeve, being interrupted. She's proudest of her hooked rug, and she's very interested in antique auctions. She is very active in the social life of the school.

HAROLD V. TIPTON, B.SC. IN ED., M.A.

A graduate of Ohio University and Ohio State, teaches American history and government. He dislikes lack of planning in classes. His school activities include being adviser to the student council, guidance instructor, and handling absences and tardiness. His chief outside activity is real estate. He loved fried chicken and often says, "W-E-L-L."

MISS SELMA H. HAMANN, PH.B.

Teaches Spanish. She attended Ohio State, Denison, and Mexico University, and enjoys listening to classical music and writing. She is a member of the Writers' Guild, besides being adviser to the Spanish Clubs and Senior Class. Her pet peeves are noise and publicity, and she often says, "Mi dios."

No honor conferred by Bexley High School excels that of membership in the National Honor Society. The society represents the fundamental objectives for which high schools are instituted and gives recognition to those who have most nearly attained the desired ends. Other honors are only partial in that they recognize special abilities, but the National Honor Society looks upon education as a total product measured by the four dimensions of life: character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Admittance to this society serves as a worthy goal for all students, for its object is "to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render services, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the pupils of Bexley High School."

The members are selected from the upper third of the class in scholarship, and only fifteen per cent of the Senior Class and not more than five per cent of the Junior Class may be admitted each year. This per cent of the juniors is deducted from the number of seniors eligible next year. This year the honor of membership has been conferred upon seventeen seniors and five juniors, who will form an active chapter in the high school.

The Bexley High School Student Council was reestablished this year "to create and maintain helpful and understanding relationships among the students, and between the student body and the school administration, in dealing with student problems and activities." The first activity undertaken by the council was the scrap metal drive. Later plans were made for a debating society and the Student Council sponsored the sale of war stamps and bonds at the booth constructed for that purpose in the first floor hall. However, the main task was the compiling of Lion Life, a handbook for the information and benefit of the student body. In order to finance the publication of Lion Life a dance and carnival was held in the spring. On May 16 members of the council sponsored an open house in the school in order that the parents be given an opportunity to meet the teachers, see the class room exhibits, and enjoy the special events scheduled for the evening.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Five members of this year's Torch and Bexleo staffs were inducted into Quill and Scroll, international honorary society for high school journalists, by the five members who composed the active chapter. The society stands for truth, loyalty, enlightenment, opportunity, initiative, leadership, and friendship; and membership in it is one of the highest honors conferred on Bexley students.

To be eligible for membership, the candidates must be in the upper third of their class; they must be of a junior or senior standing; and they must have done outstanding work in writing, editing, or business management. After being recommended by Miss Ruth Geist, literary adviser, and Ralph Howell, business adviser of the Torch, they must be approved by the executive secretary of the society.

The initiates were Bob Shamansky, Sally Miller, Bill Grant, Doris Anders, and Terry Webster. The active chapter was Jim Reynolds, Harry Kohn, Joyce Wallingford, Peggy Huffman and Bob E. Stevenson.

We, the staff of the Bexleo, present to you, the students of Bexley High School, the year book of 1944 along with our sincere hope that it may fulfill your expectations. To us was given the task of putting into words and pictures those varied and multi-colored elements which make up the numerous phases of our school life.

Many members of our class now face uncertain futures; it is our desire that the Bexleo represent to them the happy, carefree years spent in high school.

We have enjoyed our work on the Bexleo; may you now enjoy the Bexleo itself.

By winning the highest honors from the nation's two top scholastic press associations, the 1943-44 Bexley High Torch attained a goal 18 previous Torches had missed. The National Scholastic Press Association's "All-American" rating and the rating of "Medalist" from the Columbia Scholastic Press Association signify the highest achievement in all branches of high school journalism.

At the beginning of the year the frequency of issue was increased from once every five weeks to once every three weeks and substantial improvements were made in all other phases of the publication.

The Girl Reserve purpose, "To find and give the best," was well fulfilled during this year by the club's many service projects.

To introduce the school's new students to the Girl Reserves, a pirate party was given at the beginning of the year, followed later by the recognition service and tea. The service projects of the Girl Reserves included a Christmas party for the orphans, the Easter service given in cooperation with the music department, and numerous Red Cross activities. The many dances throughout the year sponsored by the Girl Reserves were met with much enthusiasm, as was the annual GR-Hi-Y dance. In addition to these services, some of the members completed projects of their own and thereby received their Girl Reserve ring certificates. The year was brought to a close with the senior farewell banquet, long to be remembered by all those present.

An added honor came to the Girl Reserves when Doris Anders was elected city-wide GR vice-president.

Under the able leadership of President Robert O. Stevenson the Bexley Hi-Y Club experienced a very successful year. The bi-weekly meetings were interesting and entertaining as well as educational, and the club took part in several worth-while projects.

The Hi-Y was responsible for the attractive football programs distributed at all home games, the chapel program featuring bomber pilot, Capt. Fred Dallas, and co-operated with the Girl Reserves in a joint meeting and a sweetheart dance. A championship basketball team was produced, and the club was well represented at all city Hi-Y meetings and at Hi-Y city day.

BAND

Under the able direction of Ralph L. Jordan, the band has made great progress. Marching at every home football game the band, including girls for the first time, made a very impressive sight.

Through funds derived from the scrap paper drive, Patron's Concert, and other sources, the band members have been able to purchase their uniforms which they wore for the first time at Open House held May 16. Besides these activities, the band played for several chapels.

CHORUS

The activities of the chorus throughout the year have been many and varied. Making its first appearance in the Thanksgiving chapel service, the chorus gave several other chapel programs, including the presentation of Kliensinger's cantata, "I Hear America Singing". The Easter services each morning before school during Easter week, as well as the Good Friday chapel program, were given by the chorus in co-operation with the Girl Reserves. The singing at the Baccalaureate Service was also furnished by the chorus.

As its outstanding activity of the year the chorus presented the operetta, "Trial by Jury," in a program of Gilbert and Sullivan music.

THE GRIDIRON SEASON

Despite a string of injuries that kept at least one regular on the bench for each of the last six games, the Bexley Lions blasted their way to victory in seven of their nine gridiron starts and retained one-third of the CBL crown, of which they had held undisputed possession the three previous years. Although the Lions' loss to Arlington forced them to share the title with Delaware and the Golden Bears, they proved their true greatness by playing their best football of the season against North and East, winner and runner-up in the tough city league.

The Lions opened their campaign with a 41-7 triumph over St. Charles as Jim Legg scored a pair of touchdowns, and George Spencer, Herb Pollock, Ted Huntington, and Bill Miller, one each. The following week Spencer collected 14 points against Greenfield McClain to lead his team to a 32-0 victory.

The Academy Vikings provided the opposition for Bexley's CBL opener and for two quarters they were plenty tough, the half ending 6-6. The final half was all Bexley, as the Lions piled up two touchdowns and an extra point by Legg, a touchdown by Spencer, and a safety to win the game by a 27-6 count. Westerville was the next victim of the Lions, who played without the services of Herb Pollock and Captain George Spencer, but found Jim Legg quite enough as he scored a touchdown on a 70 yard punt return and passed to Sam Barrett for another. The victory gave the Lions little cause for rejoicing, however, because when Legg left the gridiron in the third period he was leaving for the season with a broken leg.

Spencer was the big gun in the next two victories, as he scored two touchdowns and kicked a field goal in the 21-0 conquest of Grandview and scored one against Delaware. His accurate passing was responsible for two more tallies against the Senators and the final score was 19-0.

Before an overflow homecoming crowd on October 29 the Golden Bears of Upper Arlington completely outfought and outplayed a stunned Lion eleven to take a 19-6 victory and force a three-way tie for CBL gridiron honors. Fullback Curly Morrison paced the Golden Bears' attack and scored all their points, while George Spencer of the Lions was outstanding for his punting, passing, and running despite the absence of Jim Legg and Herb Pollock from the Bexley lineup, which enabled Arlington to concentrate its defense on Spencer.

Bouncing back from their loss to Arlington, the Lions overcame a 7-0 halftime deficit to down the East Tigers 12-7. The running of George Spencer, who made both the Lions' scores, was the big factor in the victory. The following week in the season's finale, with almost every man on the team handicapped by injuries, the Lions put up a brilliant fight against North's city high champions and until late in the final period held the 6-0 lead they had gained in the second quarter when a Pollock to Spencer shovel pass was good for a score. But the battered Lions could not hold out forever and a last minute drive gave the Polar Bears seven points and victory.

The starting lineup featured a backfield of Captain George Spencer at fullback, Herb Pollock and Jim Legg at the halfback stops, and Dan Susil at quarter. The line had Tom Graham at center, Pat Burke and Jim Hensel, guards, George Krieger and Norm Zeller, tackles, and Sam Barrett and Bill Davies, ends. Arnie Sher alternated with Zeller at tackle and Davies at end.

Barrett and Krieger were placed on the all-city first team, Spencer and Burke were named to the second team, and Pollock and Davies received honorable mention. Spencer, Barrett, and Burke made the all CBL first team, with Krieger, Davies, and Arnie Sher on the second team and Pollock, Legg, Norm Zeller, and Tom Graham receiving honorable mention.

BASKETBALL

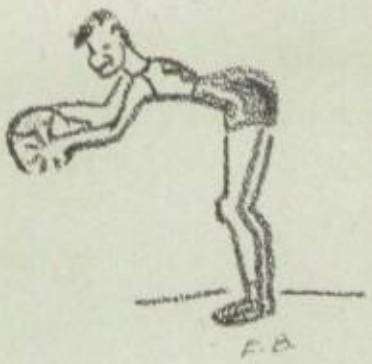
"They were champions in everything except games won and lost" was the tribute paid by Carlton Smith to his 1943-44 basketball squad. Although the Lions failed in their drive for their fourth straight CBL title, they proved themselves one of central Ohio's outstanding hardwood aggregations.

After opening with victories over Aquinas, Marion Harding, and Mount Vernon they dropped a pair of heartbreakers to Toledo De Vilbiss and Findlay, who both ranked among the state's most powerful teams. The pre-season schedule was topped off by a two-point win over North.

With one CBL victory, a 45-20 conquest of Westerville already under their belts, the Lions fell 31-20 victim of the Grandview Bobcats in the season's biggest upset and one week later dropped a 47-33 decision to Arlington to ruin all chances for the CBL crown.

In the face of these setbacks the Lions did not quit; they fought still harder. Their clean sweep of second round games was highlighted by a unique 15-8 win over Grandview and an inspiring 53-40 upset of Arlington.

Bexley won with ease its first round District Tournament battle with Westerville, but found Aquinas a little too tough and was eliminated by a 42-34 count to finish the season with a record of 13 wins and five defeats.



The starting lineup was Sam Barrett and Red Stern at the forwards, George Spencer at center, and Herb Pollock and Captain Jim Legg at the guard posts. Adequate and often brilliant performances were turned in by substitutes Jim Geist, Dan Susil, Bill Davies, Capt-elect Tom Williard, Tom Reeb, and Charles Shriner.

Spencer topped the team in scoring with 120 points, followed by Stern, named by Coach Smith as the team's most valuable player, with 97. Spencer and Legg received first team berths on the CBL all-star squad, while Pollock and Stern were named to the second team.

Gene Mechling's reserve squad finished the season with ten victories in fifteen stands, and like the varsity took second spot in the CBL with an eight and two record.

By smashing their way to the top spot at the annual Central Buckeye League track meet, the Bexley Lions gained permanent possession of the CBL track trophy they won in 1938 and 1941. The thinclads, the most surprising of all Lion teams for a pre-season analysis never could have foreseen such an outcome, scored 59 points to 37½ for Delaware, 31½ for Arlington, and 22 for Westerville, and set two new records. The 880 relay team, composed of Jim Lewis, Jim Geist, Pat Burke, and Gene Ealy, turned in a 1:36.6 performance to break the record of 1:36.8 set by Arlington last year, and freshman Jack Lewis broke the :27 low hurdle record that had stood since 1927 with :26.8.

The Lions also emerged victorious in a dual meet with Linden McKinley and in triangular meets with Arlington and Delaware, and with University and Rosary. They finished second in a triangular meet with West and Linden and lost dual meets to North and South.

Outstanding men were Gene Ealy in the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Tom Meek in the 440, Capt. Jim Lewis in the high and low hurdles, Jack Lewis in the low hurdles, high jump, and broad jump, Pat Burke in the shot put and high jump, and George Kreiger in the discus; while Russ Williams in the pole vault and broad jump, Jim Geist in the 220 and high hurdles, Terry Webster in the 880, and Bill Jones in the mile could always be counted on for a few points.

The two new CBL record were the best performances ever turned in by Bexley runners in these events, and Jim Lewis' 27 seconds in the low hurdles against University set a track record.

BASEBALL

The Bexley Diamond Lions, for the fourth straight year undisputed baseball champions of the Central Buckeye League have compiled a record unsurpassed by any other nine ever to represent the school.

Opening with a 2-0 win over Lancaster, the Mechlingmen followed with seven CBL victims, the title clinch being George Spencer's no-hit no-run contest of Arlington. The no-hitter was Spencer's second of the season, as he had tossed one two weeks earlier against Academy, striking 18 Vikings and winning by a 5-3 score. The Lions also took a 16-1 decision over Linden McKinley after splurging for 12 runs in the first inning.

In the first round of the district tournament the Lions, aided by a home run by Spencer and triples by Jim Legg, Capt. Sam Barrett, and Bill Grant, came from behind to defeat North 12-3. On the following day they played the worst ball of the season and a sixth inning rain found them tied with South at three all. When the game was replayed, however, South came out on top and earned the right to meet Grandview in the district finals.

Although the Lions' hitting was occasionally disappointing, they always came through with enough runs to win behind the splendid pitching performances of Spencer and Herb Pollock. The infield consisted of Art Fothergill at first base, Capt. Barrett at second, Jim Legg at shortstop, while Red Stern, Scott Knisley and Pollock all saw service at third. Kenny Kauffman was a fixture in left field; and Charles Shriner, Bill Barrett, Stern, Pollock and Spencer shared the responsibility for the other garden posts. Bill Grant could always be counted on for a fine performance behind the plate.

By making a clean sweep of all twelve CBL tennis matches, the 1944 Lionetters retained the league championship they have won the past three years. The Lions have not lost a tennis match since they fell victim to Martins Ferry in 1942. In addition to two wins each over Arlington, Grandview, Delaware, Westerville and Academy, the Lions defeated North and traveled to Cincinnati to down Wyoming and Western Hills. Eddie Jones, in singles, and Jim Johnson and Leonard Schiff, in doubles, emerged victorious in the Central District tennis tournaments.

The girls' tennis team, under the direction of Miss Martha Jane Anderton, emerged victorious in its just two matches, downing University 5-0 and Grandview 3-2.
